CATHOLIC CHARITIES ANNUAL APPEAL - Catholic Charities 2013 Annual Appeal - “Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor!” Rosario was a spanish-speaking mother of two who was in an abusive relationship. When she came to Catholic Charities in 2012, Rosario faced many barriers in life including depression, lack of legal status and education. After receiving counseling through St. Joseph’s Counseling Center, she was referred to Catholic Charities Immigration Legal Services where she was able to obtain legal status. With the help of Catholic Charities and your generosity, Rosario was given the courage, tools and plan to escape her life of abuse and secure stable housing for her and her children. Today, Rosario has earned her GED and is now actively involved in her community, helping women in similar situations seek help through community resources. Your support of the Catholic Charities Annual Appeal make possible the work of the agency year round. Please make a gift today at catholiccharitiesok.org/appeal or using an appeal brochure available in the parish office.
